fee schedule. A 30-day notice of any change in this fee schedule will be issued before any change is implemented.

5. I understand that the only persons eligible to be part of my “household” are Bloom Credit Union members living at my address. Account balances of minors (“Minors”) and/or persons who are my dependents for purposes of applicable tax laws (“Dependents”) can be included as household accounts, as long as such Dependents cannot be included in anyone else’s household. Confirmation of Dependents’ status should be provided with this Disclosure to Bloom Credit Union and confirmed with Bloom Credit Union annually thereafter in January of each year. Bloom Credit Union reserves the right to terminate “Dependent” status for purposes of providing member rewards if annual confirmation is not provided. Minors and Dependents are entitled to receive member rewards at the “Advantage” level on the Bloom Credit Union fee schedule. Members with minors and/or Dependents are awarded benefits at the level determined by their household balance.

6. Members receiving a retirement annuity, pension, social security, or similar retirement benefit from private or government sources, or live in, or belong to, a retirement organization, are “Retired Members” for purposes of Bloom Credit Union’s Member Rewards Program. Confirmation of Retiree status should be provided with this Disclosure to Bloom Credit Union and confirmed with Bloom Credit Union annually thereafter in January of each year. Retired Members, and households with Retired Members as members, are entitled to rewards at the “Premier” level on the Bloom Credit Union fee schedule.

7. New Bloom Credit Union members, and members of a new member’s household, are entitled to rewards as listed on the fee schedule at the “Advantage” level for the first twelve months of the New Member’s membership.
